Notice Regarding Objection Window for CEE-2026 & Provisional Answer Key

It is hereby informed to all concerned candidates who appeared for the NCERT Common Entrance Examination (CEE)-2026 conducted through Computer Based Test (CBT) mode on 03/07/2026.

The individual candidate response sheets along with the provisional answer keys will be made available on the official CEE-2026 portal from 08/07/2026 (05:00 PM) to 12/07/2026 (11:55 PM). Candidates will be given the opportunity to challenge any answer in the provisional answer key/response sheets if they find any discrepancy.

Key details for filing objections:

- Objection Window: The portal for filing objections will remain open from 08/07/2026 (05:00 PM) to 12/07/2026 (11:55 PM). No objections will be entertained after the stipulated deadline.
- Processing Fee: Candidates are required to pay a non-refundable (except as noted below) processing fee of Rs. 200/- (Rupees Two Hundred only) per question challenged.
- Refund Policy: If the objection raised by a candidate is accepted by the subject experts, the processing fee for that specific question will be refunded to the candidate's original payment account, excluding any transaction or service charges deducted by the bank at the time of payment.
- Mode of Submission: Objections, if any, must be submitted only through the online mode by logging into the candidate portal using the candidate's login credentials. No objections submitted through any other mode, including email, post, or in person, shall be entertained. Each objection must be supported by valid documentary evidence clearly justifying the challenge against the respective question(s) and/or answer option(s) in the CEE-2026 Computer-Based Test (CBT).

The decision of the subject experts on the challenges shall be final, and the result will be prepared based on the finalized answer key. Decisions on each challenge will not be communicated separately to candidates. Candidates are advised to regularly visit the official CEE-2026 portal at cee.ncert.gov.in for the latest updates.
