

Executive Summary

Working with Community Programme for B.Sc. B.Ed. II Year 2019-20

As per the mandatory curriculum requirement, the working with community programme was organised for the students of B.Sc.B.Ed II programme of the Institute from 6th January to 15th January 2020 with the following objectives:

- ❖ To make the students aware about the meaning and importance of community.
- ❖ To make the students aware about the meaningful relationship between community and Education.
- ❖ To develop the spirit of national integration, communal harmony and feeling of brotherhood among the pupil teachers.
- ❖ To make the students aware about Right to Education Act 2009.
- ❖ To provide the information about the various skill development programmes running by the government.
- ❖ To provide the basic knowledge related to First aids.
- ❖ To make the prospective teachers acquainted with the system of inclusion in the classrooms.
- ❖ To inculcate the skills among pre- service teachers about the preparation of TLM by low cost and no cost material.
- ❖ To make the students aware about various Educational programmes/schemes run by Central and State government in the rural areas.

In this programme 90 students of B.Sc. B.Ed. II year, participated enthusiastically and used three tools to observe the desired community development process.

- His own personality.
- The relationships, he creates with people.
- Various vehicles of communication.

Special and inclusive schools, old age home were selected as the areas of field study in an around of Ajmer city. Some of the activities were also organised in Hurda Block of the Bhilwara district. The duration of the programme was for ten days out of which a few activities mainly visit to inclusive schools setup; Mookbadhir Vidyalaya, and Apna Ghar Ashram, yoga, meditation, plantation, educational theme park and first aid training were organised. Other activities including observing the village prospective in different contexts were organised in Hurda Block of Bhilwara district as institute has undertaken a research study in this block. Aforesaid activities were organised in Gageda village. Activities such as visiting to rural primary schools, Panchayat raj, Aangan bari, Health centre, Sahkari samiti , Nand ghar, village rally , socio-economic survey, drop out data collection , Mid- day meal, MNREGA (Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act) programme , theme based cultural programmes and Nukkad natak were organised.

Outcome of the Programme

Working with community programme is a way of socialization and inculcate the sensitivity among the students towards the society, with an unknown community; a process of learning something new from the community through interaction about its customs and traditions, ways of living, their socio ecomic issues and gaining knowledge about the functions and usefulness of the different government programmes and schemes running in that community. Programs of community development are best considered as a mean of collaborating with other peoples of society. It is working with community not working for community. It means one has to learn how to work with community.

Significance of the programme

- Understands meaning and importance of community and relationship between community and Education.
- Strengthening the spirit of National integration, communal harmony and feeling of brotherhood among the pupil teachers.
- Various skills such as collaborative, coordinative, people management, critical thinking, adaptability, creativity and communication etc.
- Prospective teachers acquainted with the system of inclusion in the classrooms
- Skills among pre- service teachers about the preparation of TLM by low cost and no cost material.
- Awareness about various Educational programmes/schemes run by Central and State government in the rural areas. e.g. SIQE (State Initiative for quality education in Rajasthan) and MNREGA(Mahatma Gandhi National Rural Employment Guarantee Act.)
- Various socio-economic issues exists in rural areas

The programme was coordinated by Dr. O.P. Meena. Other faculty members associated with this programme are Dr. Anil Nainawat, Dr. Ved Prakash Arya, Dr. Rana Pratap, Dr. Satveer Singh and Dr. Sruti Sharma.